Hard Luck Plagues MSU Grid Season

Lady Luck certainly wasn't on Montana's side this season. Injuries plagued the team wherever the Grizzlies went.

Both Severn Hayes and Ervin Rosera, the two leading ground gainers, suffered broken legs during the latter part of the year. Hayes had also broken his leg during the previous season. Bill Kaiserman was forced to hang up his spikes with an injured back. Matt Gorsich's severe leg injury caused him to miss the Idaho game.

Don Williamson bruised his knee at Salt Lake City and Bill Hand missed both the New Mexico and Idaho games. Dick Dzivi, Montana Bockman, Bob McGihon and Ivory Jones, plus several others, suffered various injuries. An appendectomy kept Dick Wright, speedy sophomore back, from playing football this year.

Montana's Grizzlies claim to fame this season was in its ranking sixth in the nation in punt returns—24 for 342 yards and an average of 14.3 yards per carry. The Silvertips won only one while losing nine games.

In the first game of the season, Arizona downed Montana 27-12. Although holding down Art Luppinio, the champion ground gainer in college history, with a stout ground defense, the Silvertips were victims of a sizzling air attack. Two weeks later Utah's two platoons outlasted the Grizzlies for a 26-6 win for the strong Utes.

Sports Illustrated said this about the third straight game on the road: "Denver won its first of the season, handing Montana its third straight loss 22-13. All the scoring in this one was in the first half, the officials taking over in the second half. In fact, the striped shirts had a field day as they marched off too much yardage in their enthusiasm, another time getting the downs mixed up, and finally permitting an ineligible receiver to catch a pass."

Before 7500 Homecoming fans, in Montana's first home game, Utah State broke a 13-13 tie at the start of the fourth quarter to go on to hand a 27-13 loss to the hapless Grizzlies. Four first-stringers, Kaiserman, Jones, McGihon, and Williamson, weren't in the Montana line-up due to injuries.

The Grizzlies ground out 19 first downs in a 32-14 victory over the Brigham Young Cougars. Guard Renning, elected outstanding lineman of the game, performed a rare feat; he scored on a 40-yard run after intercepting a BYU pass.

In the 20-34 loss to Colorado A & M, Montana's only bright spot was Hayes' 70-yard sprint into paydirt on a kickoff return. The Montana State Bobcats won their eleventh victory of the 36 frays between the two schools by a score of 14-33. The Bobcats went on to finish their undefeated season by playing in the Aluminum Bowl at Little Rock, Arkansas.

The Wyoming Cowboys, who also had an undefeated season, ran wild in the second half to humble the Silvertips 34-13; the score at halftime was deadlocked at 13-all.

Despite Montana's Rosera, who gained first downs at random, New Mexico's Lobos eked out a 14-13 win from the Grizzlies in a game which saw a near-riot in the closing seconds. Temper flared over a swinging incident between two players. Both benches emptied onto the field as spectators joined in; policemen spent five minutes clearing the field.

On Thanksgiving Day, the Idaho Vandals retained the little brown jug by taking advantage of a blocked kick and a 41-yard T.D. march to shut out the scrappy Montana eleven 14-0.

Jack Hill, the nation's leading ground gainer, is shown above as he was stopped by the Grizzlies in the Homecoming game on October 13 at Missoula. Vern Tennant is at the bottom of the pile. Utah State won the game with MSU by a score of 27-13.

Stan Renning, 200-pound guard from Great Falls, lived up to all expectations with his bone-crushing offensive and defensive play. Several honors were heaped upon the young blond. Renning was a near-unanimous choice by the Associated Press as the most promising sophomore in the Skyline Conference, and he placed on the Skyline All-Star second team. He is the first sophomore ever to be chosen as the outstanding Grizzly player.

Hoopsters Third in Skyline Conference

Montana's hustling hoop squad, a "dark bear" in the 1957 Skyline race, finally finished in third place in the conference standings after reming in the thick of the battle for the "top dog" position until the final game of the season.

The Grizzlies' 8-5 Skyline record was the finest showing by a Montana team since MSU joined the mountain loop in 1951. Against non-conference foes, MSU broke even in eight games to record off the total season's record at 13-9.

The Silvertips proved they were definitely a home court team by winning eleven in a row at home after losing to Idaho in the first fray of the season in the Field House. They won two while losing eight away from home, which was an improvement over last year when the squad didn't win any games on the road.

Their two road wins came at the expense of Wyoming and New Mexico. The 36-33 victory at New Mexico on Feb. 16 was MSU's first league win away from home since Feb. 28, 1952. The 81-78 win over the Cowboys was only the second time Montana has won an athletic event in Skyline play at Wyoming.

Facts . . .

Montana led the Skyline conference in defense by holding their foes to 62.9 points per game in 14 league contests . . . MSU was one of the top 20 teams in the nation in defense.

Al Dunham tied the school record for scoring the most points via free throws in one game by swishing 14 as MSU beat Colorado A&M 74-63 . . . Dunham also set what may be a new Skyline record by scoring 33 consecutive free throws.

The Grizzlies set a new school record by scoring 72.1 per cent of their free throws.

Ray Howard grabbed 21 rebounds against Idaho . . . Clancy Waters scored 22 of the team's 36 points in outlasting New Mexico's stalling tactics, 36-33.

In the February 23 fray with B.Y.U., Zip Rhoades (7) flicks a left-handed jump shot over the outstretched hands of Lynn Rowe of B.Y.U. Also pictured are Jim Powell (10), Tom Steinke (23), Russ Sheriff (6), and Roy Thacker (35).

Montana 60 - Utah 48

Big Russ Sheriff bucketed 15 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to inspire the hustling Grizzlies to scalp the Utah Redskins, defending Skyline champions, by a 60-48 score. After a fairly close first half, the Grizzlies, playing deliberately and exhibiting a zone defense, pulled away midway in the last half.

In the below picture of the January 19 game, Al Dunham (6) springs high into the stratosphere to swish two points despite the defensive work of Jerry McCleary (35). Shown are Waters (16), Chick Shores (10), and Sheriff (5).

More Facts . . .

Zip Rhoades scored 28 points as MSU lost to Utah State 79-80. Dunham played the finest game of his collegiate career in the 64-60 win over Wyoming by racking up 25 points and 14 rebounds.

Rhoades scored on 10 out of 15 attempted field goals, made 26 points, and victory against Colorado A&M gathered in 13 rebounds in the 74-63.

Jim Powell scored 18 points in the second half to lead MSU to an 81-78 win at Wyoming, after the Silvertips had been behind 33-44 at halftime.

Waters' 18 second half tallies weren't enough as Utah downed MSU 84-70.

Zip Rhoades finished 10th, Clancy Waters 11th and Al Dunham 13th in Skyline scoring for 14 games. Their total points were 216, 194 and 180 respectively.

"Sor" again caught looking in the copy desk slot.

Wire Editor FARRELL COFFMAN smiles from the "rim" of the copy desk as she edits UP news . . . kept up the staff esprit de corps.

"Rings and Pins" originated with Society Editor JAYNE WALSH . . . "Soc" editor was charged with weekly duty of roundup of all previous week's social news plus blurbs on coming functions.

Editor NATALIE NORBY managed to graduate with high honors despite competition from the law school . . . decorated office with Utrillo prints and bullfight posters . . . preferred bermudas, bare feet and continual open house . . . directed staff . . . developed the ultimate in patience . . . especially with help of Julia Parenti, Faythe Butts, many, many freshman girls.

Business Manager BILL BORING watched over the money, bills and budget . . . left school spring quarter . . . hoped to be able to return in the fall.

Veteran business manager from the '56 book, KAY BLASZEK stepped in to fill Bill's place . . . succeeded with usual efficiency despite flutter of June wedding plans . . . then stepped in again in August for final proofreading and the index when another wedding stole the editor.

Associate Editor DEE SCRIVEN squealed and swore over her living group section into the wee hours after graduation . . . poor girl couldn't read a ruler . . . turned 21 spring quarter.

DANNA DAVIS, associate editor, managed to track down the identity of almost every face in her clubs and organizations section . . . took care of Walt and the university switchboard in her spare time.

Associate Editor WALT GERSON "Sixteen Tonned" his way through the sports pages . . . practiced tennis against the door and basketball in the wastebaskets.

Forester and head photographer DON HARKIN was responsible for most of the candid portraits and fall and winter activity shots . . . discovered trees and girls spring quarter . . . then lost his way to the Sentinel office and darkroom.

Faithful CHUCK JANDA always came through when prints were needed for the engraving deadlines . . . took all the shots of campus scenes including the night pan and aerial . . . will return next year as photo editor after vacationing with the forest service in Idaho.

LARRY DAVID took many a picture when desperation set in . . . ROGER LIVDAHL, CHUCK DAVEY and HIDEO KIMURA also manned the cameras.

public service division . . .

Administrative agency . . . carries on the university's off-campus activities and services . . . has varied departments.

SITTING: Virginia Golden, publications; Maribeth Dwyer, news service division; Ross Miller, director, public service division and news service; Jeanne Southard, secretary; Mary Margaret Courtney, secretary, home study and adult education. STANDING: Les Pengelly, conservation education extension; Cyrile Van Duser, student employment secretary, hometown news and yearbook adviser; Dick Harris, news service photographer; Cy Noe, tv assistant; Murdo Campbell, athletic news.

Keeps the MSU alumni in contact with the university, each other and the activities of each . . . this accomplished through the alumni news bulletin . . . maintains a permanent office on campus.

Kathryn Buzzetti, clerk; Marcus Bourke, secretary-treasurer, Montana State University Alumni Association, and Hulda Fields, records secretary, standing in front of the alumni house on campus.

The 1957 Sentinel has sought for change in organization, design and idea . . . not change for the sake of change but change for the realization that only by such can come revaluation of old ways and perhaps a fresher, more living and cohesive approach. The changes are many and evident. The only one I shall mention is the lack of advertising which did mean a small cut in budget which was compensated for by lack of color and less expensive covers. These economies will be foregone next year, and with happier merchants, we hope.

I wish to thank all those who so willingly gave of their time and effort to make this book a reality. The list is long . . . the immediate staff, of course, Kay Blaszek, Bill Boring, Chuck Janda, Don Harkin, Danna Davis, Dee Scriven, Walt Gerson, Larry David, Roger Livdahl, Chuck Davey, Julia Parenti and all the many freshman girls . . . Cyrile Van Duser for her advice and encouragement, Claud Lord, Rod Fisher and Gale Brammer of the University Press, Tom McConnell of Kingskraft Covers and Jack Gallant and Al Salisbury of the Artcraft Engraving Company.

The Missoulain photographers, Stan Healy, John Forssen and Ken Payton, Dick Harris of the University staff, Scotty Campbell of the Butte Standard and Shell Oil Company, and Ken Cooper . . . the many faculty members and students who cooperated when asked for information and posing . . . Bob Dundas, Lucille Armsby, Ross Miller, Marcus Bourke, Murdo Campbell, Dr. Carl McFarland . . . the Registrar's Office, Athletic Department, News Service, Kaimin, the Business Office and the Lodge Main Desk.

And most of all, the members of my family and Ross when the pressure made me difficult to live with . . . and Kay for the tedious finishing touches.
